

Dear colleagues, students and graduates,

For the upcoming autumn Placement Slovakia team prepared many wonderful Erasmus+ internship opportunities for you.

All of them are provided with free accommodation, our local support and other tempting benefits.

Check out some of our actual vacancies here:

Executive Assistant

administration internship in a leading global company in health care, suitable for students of business studies

Marketing Communication Manager

position for marketing and communication students in centre for young entrepreneurs and their start-up projects

Mobile Application Developer

IT position in company providing consultancy services in investment processes

Finance Assistant

internship opportunity for finance students in a world-known company providing services in taxes, audit and legal issues

Junior Design Coordinator

position for students and graduates interested in construction engineering

Project Manager Trainee

internship in mechanical engineering sector in a successful Slovak production and engineering company

Graphic & Marketing Assistant position for graphic design students and graduates in an international consultancy company specializing in travel industry

All the vacancies are available with full description at Placement Slovakia website www.placementslovakia.com, where you can submit your application form straight away.

We look forward to hearing from you!

Placement Slovakia team